

I Beg To You (Red Allen)

Band Name – Title of Release © year

See the grass it's bending in the fields
The wind softly blowin is the cause
But I'm alone with just my memory
And it nobody's fault but my own
I walked out and left you for another
Now look at me blue as can be now she's gone

Chorus

On my knees I beg to you
If I thought that it would do any good at all
I'd kiss the ground you walk upon
I know now that I was wrong
To leave you all alone

She left me for a man shed know before
I suppose it had to happen all along
She said I just don't love you anymore
And I deserved everything I got and more
If there is just the smallest chance that you will have me
That id walk to you or crawl to you on my knees

Chorus
